Looking for something new?
Try the Kellogg Hub Café!

If you’re looking for delicious high quality food in a tranquil garden setting and at affordable prices, why not try Kellogg College’s brand new Hub Café?

Launched in May 2017, the Hub Café offers a great range of sandwiches, salads, paninis, coffee and much more. It’s open every day of the week except bank holidays.

Open throughout the Summer

Whether you want to meet up with friends for a coffee, catch up on some work or enjoy special offers on quality food and drink, the Hub Café is for you.

Eco-friendly and ethical, the Hub is the University’s first building designed to the ‘green’ Passivhaus standard. It offers reusable ‘keep cups’, all packaging is compostable, the coffee served is Rainforest Alliance and Fairtrade approved, food is sourced as locally as possible, and food waste is recycled.

(The Hub Café is cashless: credit or debit cards only, please.)

Summer vacation opening times
8am-4pm, every day including weekends (except bank holidays)

How to find us
The Hub is set in the peaceful grounds of Kellogg College. Access it between 62 and 64 Banbury Road, OX2 6PN.
